Teeing Up for Community Care

About SCAL Charity Golf

The SCAL Charity Golf is a fundraising event organised by the Singapore Contractors Association Ltd (SCAL), bringing together industry leaders, contractors, business partners, and stakeholders for a day of networking, friendly competition and meaningful engagement.

Driven by a shared commitment to give back, this edition also serves as a fundraising initiative in support of a worthy cause, reflecting the construction industry's commitment to giving back to the community. The event strengthens relationships, fosters camaraderie, and reinforces the spirit of collaboration across the built environment sector.

Supporting Ling Kwang Home for Senior Citizens

This year, the SCAL Charity Golf is pleased to dedicate its fundraising efforts to our beneficiary Ling Kwang Home for Senior Citizens, a non-profit organisation that has been providing compassionate care and support to vulnerable seniors in Singapore for decades. While government funding helps to meet part of its operating costs, the Home relies on the generosity of donors and partners to continue delivering quality care, meaningful programmes, financial assistance, and a safe, comfortable living environment for its residents.

Funds raised through the SCAL Charity Golf will go directly towards supporting Ling Kwang Home's daily operations, programmes and services, and care facilities- ensuring that every contribution translates into meaningful improvements in the lives of elderly residents and clients who need it most.

By supporting this event, your organisation will not only make a tangible difference to one of Singapore's dedicated eldercare communities but also demonstrate a strong commitment to corporate social responsibility. As Ling Kwang Home is a registered IPC, all eligible donations qualify for 2.5 times tax deduction on the qualifying donation portion of their participation package, in accordance with prevailing IPC and IRAS regulations.
