Dear Sir / Madam,

PRODUCTIVITY CLINIC - WALK-IN CONSULTATION SERVICES ON CONSTRUCTION PRODUCTIVITY & CAPABILITY FUND (CPCF) FUNDING (For 63rd RUN)

The BCA-SCAL Productivity Clinic was set up for the purpose of assisting companies apply for funding to defray costs and boost productivity in their construction processes. With 60 sessions conducted since Dec 2011, many companies have benefitted from this one-to-one consultation service.

Likewise, your company can get ready for the upcoming challenges in our built - environment sector by signing up for our free productivity clinics!

Come and learn how your business can:

- ✓ Improve your workforce's capability
- ✓ Adopt new technologies
- ✓ Re-engineer existing work processes to achieve greater productivity
- ✓ Achieve cost savings

All by tapping on the Construction Productivity and Capability Fund (CPCF)!

Officers from BCA will be at the clinic to advise you on the funding schemes available (e.g Mechanisation Credit, Productivity Improvement Projects & Workforce Training & Upgrading), and assist you with identifying potential areas of productivity improvement and the application of the relevant funding scheme(s).

Our next Productivity Clinic (62nd run) session is on 27 April 2017, 2.00pm to 5.00pm, at Room 2-3, Construction House, 1 Bukit Merah Lane 2, Singapore 159760.

Registration is limited to the first 10 companies on a first-come first-serve basis.

Register early to avoid disappointment and secure your timeslot the soonest possible!

Upon registration, a specific half-hour timeslot (within 2 to 5pm) will be assigned to you.

In view of the tightening of manpower policy, we encourage you to actively participate in this consultation service and seek funding in all possible areas for productivity improvement.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully,

Lam Kong Hong
